Missouri Valley Conference

A commitment to excellence, both in the classroom and the athletic arena, has been a trademark of the Missouri Valley Conference since its inception in 1907. In addition to success on the national baseball scene, the athletic accomplishments of MVC institutions through the years have included four national basketball championships and 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four.

MVC members have been especially prominent on the national collegiate baseball scene in recent years. Following Wichita State's national championship in 1989, as many as three Valley teams have been ranked among the nation's top 25 during the past five years. In 1991, two MVC teams advanced to the College World Series as Wichita State and Creighton both made collegiate baseball's Final Four, with WSU finishing second and Creighton tied for third; Wichita State also finished second in the 1993 season. Since 1980, some 24 MVC teams have competed in the NCAA baseball tournament, with nine advancing to the College World Series in the last 11 years.

MVC athletes and coaches have become familiar names during the conference's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers which have followed stardom in the Missouri Valley. Current major leaguers who played their collegiate ball in the MVC include Kirby Puckett, Joe Carter, Dave Steib, Steve Finley, Charlie O'Brien, Dennis Rasmussen, Jim Lindeman, Phil Stephenson, Scott Servais and Zane Smith.

MVC basketball alums include Larry Bird, Xavier McDaniel, Hersey Hawkins, Benoit Benjamin, Oscar Robertson, Chet Walker, Walt Frazier, Wes Unseld and Paul Silas.

The St. Louis-based MVC began operating as a basketball conference and through the years has produced many individual and team national champions in basketball, baseball, and track and field. The league has merged with the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference, which concluded a decade of excellence in women's athletics.

The Missouri Valley was formed on January 12, 1907, when eight administrators representing five midwestern state universities gathered in a hotel room in Kansas City. In the fall of that year, basketball became the first competitive sport in what was then the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

In addition to Northern Iowa, current MVC members include Bradley, Creighton, Drake, Illinois State, Indiana State, Southern Illinois, Southwest Missouri State, Tulsa, Wichita State and the newest member in its first year, Evansville.

Missouri Valley Conference Tournament

Veteran leadership leads Panthers into

Experience and a confidence that strengthens with each new season stand as the building blocks for the 1995 Northern Iowa baseball team.

In his fifth season at the Panthers' helm, coach Dave Schrage has guided his first recruiting class into its final collegiate season. Returning 14 lettermen from last season, including 64 percent of the team's at-bats and 62 percent of its innings pitched, the Panthers have gained experience at nearly every position and stand as the most experienced team to play under Schrage.

"We're extremely excited about this season," Schrage said. "We're a veteran team. We have a lot of three-year starters."

Schrage said he feels his team is confident heading into its fourth season in Missouri Valley Conference play.

"We're over the newness of the Valley," he said. "When we go into games, we feel like we have a chance to win, and we have developed some good team unity."

"With all of those things coming together, now it's just a matter of our kids having good years and executing."

"I think last year, the close games that we lost, we learned a lot from them," Schrage said. "... the players remember those games, and those are the games we need to win this year to make the Valley tournament and to have a successful season. The players are really on a mission. We want to be in Springfield this year."

need him to supply a little bit more power for us than he did last year," Schrage said. "He's going to hit in the middle of the lineup for us."

Freshman righthander Tom Hunter will back Jergenson up at first.

Hunter, also a tight end on the football team, was drafted out of high school.

He has tremendous potential, Schrage said. Drafted with the purpose of making him a first baseman, he may also catch, play outfield or fill in as the designated hitter for UNI.

SECOND BASE

Junior Rob McCormick and freshman Todd Rima find themselves in a battle for the starting job at second, and Schrage said he can foresee both playing a lot.

FIRST BASE

The Panthers will be looking for another solid performance at first base from sophomore Brian Jergenson. Jergenson, the team's leading returning hitter with a .358 batting average, stands as a threat at the plate with his 6-5 frame, to which he has added nearly 30 pounds, increasing to 212 pounds.

This year, though, Schrage would like to see some more power from the lefthander.

"We're looking for another solid year at the plate from Brian, but we McCormick started 34 games last season, most as a designated hitter, compiling a .224 batting average with two home runs and 19 RBI.

"He brings a quality bat into our lineup," Schrage said. "He's got a lot of experience. He's a leader-type person for us, and I know he's looking to improve."

Schrage is excited about Rima, a native of Oelwein, Iowa, and said he feels he has tremendous physical tools.

"He can run well and has a strong arm," Schrage said. "We're working on him in the winter, trying to make him stronger. He's learning the game a little bit, but he's extremely talented."

SHORTSTOP

The Panthers return sophomore Canadian product Kevin Sawatzky at shortstop this year. After a fire and ice freshman season, Sawatzky needs to produce some consistency, Schrage said.

"He needs to cut down on his strikeouts (45), which he's working hard to do," Schrage said. "He needs to cut down his swing a little bit with two strikes."

"He's a guy that could hit double figure home runs. He's got that kind of power potential for us."

Aaron Houdeshell will be Sawatzky's back up. A freshman from Plymouth, Minn., he will play many roles for the Panthers this season, taking on the utility infielder duties.

"Aaron is probably the hardest-working person in our program," Schrage said. "He's a lefthanded hitter that runs really well. He may DH some against right-handed pitching, especially if we want to get some speed into the lineup, and he's very solid defensively--a real scrapper."

THIRD BASE

Two-year starter Tom Owen returns to the hot corner for the Panthers this season. Schrage is looking for Owen, as well as other seniors, to produce this year--to hit .300 and to have good seasons.

"Tom definitely has the potential to do that for us at third base," Schrage said. "He possesses probably the best batting eye on the team."

"He's trying to improve on his consistency on defense. But he gives us a real solid player down there with a lot of college experience."

Houdeshell will also back up Owen.

"Aaron's going to be kind of our utility infielder," Schrage said. "We may use him at second, short or third."

CATCHER

Led by all-Missouri Valley honorable mention catcher Matt Paulsen and sophomore Matt Waller, the backstop position will be deep.

Kevin Sawatzky

'95 with hopes of landing in Springfield

Tom Owen

gives us some speed too.

"The more Waller plays, the more he's going to get in the groove."

Josh Ellwanger, an Iowa all-stater last season at Sioux City Heelan, will play behind Waller.

"Josh is a solid all-around player," Schrage said. "He's a really consistent-type receiver and hitter. He's learning right now."

OUTFIELD

Two three-year starters and a junior college All-America player highlight an experienced outfield core.

Returners Keven Saunders and Mark Pasqualini have six years of starting experience between them.

Saunders has strung together three consecutive quality seasons at the plate with a high of .374 in 1993.

After leading the Panthers with eight stolen bases last season, Saunders will take his base-stealing skills to the lead-off spot.

"We want Keven to run the bases more aggressively this year—he's our best baserunner," Schrage said. "We want him to steal 25 to 30 bases for us this year. We want him to run wild."

Pasqualini moves over to right field with the graduation of last year's leading hitter, Monty Muller. Schrage said he feels Pasqualini will step up after struggling his first three seasons at the plate.

"Mark definitely has the potential to hit .300," Schrage said. "And he runs well, too."

Andy Rocksvold, a junior college transfer from Ellsworth Community College, and senior Craig Fritz will compete for the last starting position in the outfield.

"Andy is a great tools player—runs well, throws well, hits with some power," Schrage said. "And from what I've seen in the fall, covers everything in the outfield."

"Fritz gives us great experience," Schrage said. "He'll play some center and some right field."

Greg Woodin and Josh Dunham provide the Panthers with depth in the outfield, taking on reserve rolls.

Woodin put together a great fall with the bat and may DH some. "When a guy hits, you've got to find a spot for him," Schrage said.

Paulsen's .336 batting average last season is the second best among returners, and Schrage is again looking for big things from the senior captain.

"Matt is a quality receiver and calls an excellent game," Schrage said. "He'll be in the line-up everyday, whether he's at catcher or at DH."

Waller, also a kicker on the Panther football team, will back up Paulsen.

"He possesses the best throwing arm in our program," Schrage said. "He's a guy who will need to step up and play for us. Matt has great quickness, so if he's in the line-up, that

Dunham is a freshman with good speed and a good arm, and can play any of the outfield positions.

PITCHING

The Panthers have the most depth of any position on the mound. Senior captain Mike Irvine, senior returning starter Brett Lagerblade and returning starters, juniors Steve Beard and Jeff Johannsen solidify the pitching staff along with senior Jon Goerish and sophomore Scott Eibey.

Irvine and Beard started last season 9-0 before dropping their final 12 games.

"Obviously, we're looking for improved consistency from Steve and Mike," Schrage said. "Both are very capable of being two of the top pitchers in our conference."

Although he lacks a little experience, Eibey continues to get better, and Schrage said he looks for big things from him in 1995.

Goerish, primarily a reliever last season will have to step in and start this season, Schrage said.

Lagerblade, UNI's most consistent pitcher in the Valley last year, should land a spot in the rotation, as should Johannsen.

"All six of these guys are capable of starting games for us in our four-game conference series," Schrage said.

The bullpen mixes three returning hurlers and three freshmen into a both the long relievers slot and the closer role.

Matt Klemesrud will fill in as a long reliever and a spot-starter.

"Matt had the best fall of all our pitchers," Schrage said. "He's developed some confidence in himself, and that was the only thing he was lacking."

Breaking-ball freshman Scott Brickman may also see some time. Brickman is working to get stronger and will be a major asset this year, Schrage said. Another freshman, Kevin Briggeman, will also throw in middle relief, after suffering a sore arm in the fall, and may also pinch hit or DH.

The Panthers have three hurlers that will throw in short relief.

Seniors Bryan Duncan and Jeff Weime, and freshman Scott Hoey will begin the season in the closer role.

"We've dropped Duncan to short relief because he comes totally side arm now," Schrage said. "He threw 11 scoreless innings in our fall World Series. He'll give hitters a different look, and he has the mentality to be a closer."

"Weime has a great sinker," Schrage said. "He has to have confidence because you need that when the game's on the line. He has to step up that way."

"Hoey probably has the best 'stuff' of our three relievers," he added. "He can move the ball inside and outside, and he's a pretty hard-nosed kid that likes those situations."

Jeff Johannsen

Dave Schrage

Despite experiencing some growing pains over the past few years, Panther coach Dave Schrage is more confident than ever about returning Northern Iowa to respectability in the Missouri Valley Conference and in Division I baseball.

Heading into his fifth season at UNI, Schrage has lived up to his reputation as a tireless recruiter by bringing in the finest groups of newcomers in the schools history in just the past four seasons. This season brings ing the class ranked fifth in the nation in 1985, according to Collegiate Baseball. Three players Schrage recruited were drafted by major league teams, most notably former Olympian and current Houston Astros catcher Scott Servais. In his four years as a player and two as an assistant at Creighton, the Bluejays never had a losing season, posting a 201-145 record.

"Dave is as knowledgeable about the entire game as any player or coach I worked with at Creighton," said Hendry, now the Director of Player Development with the Chicago Cubs. "He is a great teacher and communicator with his players in all facets of the game. Dave knows baseball in the Midwest as well as anyone."

He became head coach of the Mt. Gravatt Eagles Club in Brisbane, Australia, in 1987 and played and coached for the National League Champion Queensland Rams.

Schrage is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and helped found the FCA chapter at Creighton.

Schrage, 33, received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Creighton in 1983 and his master's in Sports Administration from Biscayne in 1984. He and his wife, Jody, have two daughters, Kaitlyn and Brianne.

Schrage's first recruiting class into their final season as Panthers.

Schrage came to Northern Iowa in the summer of 1990 after leading Waldorf College in Forest City, Iowa, to the junior college sub-regional championship game twice in three seasons. In three years with the Warriors, he posted a 62-67 record and sent two of his players on to be drafted by professional teams.

At Northern Iowa, Schrage has posted a 70-149 record, recording the third highest total of wins in school history while competing against a rigorous schedule which includes 21 games each season in the nationally-acclaimed Missouri Valley Conference.

Already under Schrage's guidance at Northern Iowa, the baseball program has moved to the MVC, to a new home field in a former minor league facility in neighboring Waterloo, has had live radio broadcasts of home and away games and has nearly doubled the programs financial support.

A native of Oak Park, Ill., Schrage was a four-year starter in centerfield for the Creighton Blue Jays. He led the Missouri Valley in hitting in 1982 with a .400 batting average and followed that up with a .433 mark the next season. He earned Missouri Valley All-Conference honors in 1982 and was named to the GTE/ CoSIDA Academic All-American Team in 1983.

His .433 average in 1983 ranks him third on Creighton's all-time single-season list while the .400 clip in 1982 ranks sixth. Schrage led the club in stolen bases in 1980 with 15, triples in 1981 with three and hits in 1982 with 66.

Schrage is currently fifth in career hitting at Creighton with a .358 average, ranks fourth in stolen bases with 62 and is ninth in games played with 199.

Schrage's first collegiate coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at Biscayne College in Miami in 1984 before he returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach to Jim Hendry in 1985 and 1986, where he was instrumental in recruit

Ken Misfeldt

Ken Misfeldt joined the Northern Iowa coaching staff two years ago and will serve his second season as the Panthers' top assistant as well as hitting instructor and infield coach.

Prior to arriving at UNI, Misfeldt was an assistant at Wayne State College in Nebraska from 1991-92 where the Wildcats posted a pair of 25-23 seasons. He served as the infield coach both years and his 1992 infielders posted the best fielding percentage in the school's history with a .979 mark.

His college playing experience includes two years at Hutchinson (Kan.) Junior College and two years at Northwest Missouri State as a third and first baseman. Misfeldt also played on the semi-professional team that won the Nebraska state championship in 1985 and 1987.

A native of Arlington, Neb., Misfeldt received his master's degree in Sports Management from Wayne State in 1993 after obtaining his bachelor's degree in Journalism from Northwest Missouri State in 1981.

He and his wife, Debbie, have four daughters— Molly, Meggie, Morgan and Mattie.

Joe Blake

Like Misfeldt, Joe Blake is in his second season with the Panthers. Blake, serving as a graduate assistant, has the primary duties of hitting instruction and working with the outfielders.

A native of Indianola, Iowa, Blake was a two-sport star at Simpson College. He was a three-time all conference outfielder who never hit below .420 in three seasons. As a junior in 1990, Blake was a third team Division III All-America selection and led Simpson to the College World Series.

Blake also starred in football where he was a three-time all- conference quarterback who ended his career in 1992 as the Division III leader in career and single-season passing efficiency.

He was the linebacker coach at Simpson in 1993 and served as an assistant boys basketball coach at Waterloo West High School last season.

Blake earned his bachelor's degree in 1992 in Elementary Education and currently is pursuing his master's in Physical Education at Northern Iowa.

His younger brother, Casey, is an All-Missouri Valley third baseman at Wichita State.

Chosen as captains by their teammates, from left, catcher Matt Paulsen, right fielder Mark Pasqualini and hurler Mike Irvine hope to help the Panthers improve on last season's 24-32 record and seventh-place finish in the Missouri Valley. Paulsen, a transfer from Normandale Junior College in Minnesota a year ago, is the only returning Panther chosen to the MVC all-conference team last season where he was an honorable mention choice. Pasqualini, taking over the right field duties this season, has begun each of his first three seasons as a starter. Irvine, a starting pitcher in each of his first three seasons, looks to become one of the top pitchers in the Valley.

Facilities play an important role in helping Northern Iowa's student-athletes make the most of their collegiate careers.

The Panthers' baseball facilities provide an excellent atmosphere for teaching, learning and training no matter what the weather may bring.

The Panthers begin their fourth season in Riverfront Stadium in neighboring Waterloo, after having played all home dates there for the first time in 1993. A 10-minute drive from the Northern Iowa campus, Riverfront Stadium had been the home of professional baseball in Waterloo since 1948. The city-owned facility was home to the San Diego Padres Class A franchise in the Midwest League until early last spring. The Waterloo Diamonds became the Springfield (Ill.) Sultans in April, 1994.

Seating capacity is 4,277 with distances to the double decked outfield fence measuring 330 feet down the left- and right-field lines, 360 feet in the power alleys and 390 to center. Major renovations have been made to the playing surface and press box within the past two years.

For off-season conditioning and practice, Northern Iowa is blessed with one of the finest indoor facilities anywhere. The spacious 16,400-seat UNI-Dome, constructed in 1976, is home to Northern Iowa athletics and many of its teams. The adjoining Physical Education Center provides state-of-the-art weight and athletic training facilities while the Dome, home to the Panther football and basketball teams, allows for a spacious indoor environment for practice when inclement weather prevents outdoor workouts.

Panthers in the Pros

Providing tangible evidence of the dramatic strides made by the Northern Iowa baseball program in recent years, 1990 saw the first two Panthers selected in the major league draft while another was signed as a free agent in 1992.

Pitcher Steve Dreyer became the first Northern Iowa player ever selected in the draft when he was taken in the eighth round by the Texas Rangers. On August 8, 1993, he became the first UNI alumnus to appear in the major leagues in 18 years when he drew the starting assignment for the Rangers and picked up a victory against the Seattle Mariners.

Steve Dreyer

Duane Josephson

Eddie Watt

An Ames, Iowa, native, Dreyer went on to post a 3-3 record in 10 games as he became the answer to three trivia questions:

- Who was the last pitcher to relieve Nolan Ryan?
- Who was the last man to retire George Brett?
- Who was the last Ranger starter in Arlington Stadium?

Other Northern Iowa alums who played in the major leagues include former White Sox and Red Sox All-Star catcher Duane Josephson and former Orioles reliever Eddie Watt.

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

Northern Iowa prides itself on providing a student-centered educational experience. The university's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere. Small classes enable the university to foster one-on-one working relationships between faculty and students. More than 90 percent of UNI's classes have 50 or fewer students.

Students enter the university well-prepared, demonstrated by their selection of high school courses and rank in their graduating class. In recent years, over 90 percent of the entering freshmen ranked in the top 50 percent of their high school classes, with about 60 percent ranking in the top 30 percent. The average undergraduate arrives at UNI with an ACT score of 23.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the university by ranking it seventh among the top 15 colleges and universities and second best buys in the Midwest Region in its America's Best Colleges Book. It also recognized Northern Iowa as one of two "up-and-coming" Midwest regional universities.

The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa. The College's Department of Accounting is ranked among the 10 best in the country by educators and accounting professionals. In a national survey of 400 accounting faculty, Northern Iowa ranked as one of their top programs.

The university was founded in 1876 and is one of three state-assisted universities administered by the Iowa State Board of Regents. Additional private support is provided by the UNI Foundation and Northern Iowa Alumni Association, representing more than 65,000 alumni in the United States and other countries.

Considered a long-time leader in the field of teacher education, UNI has implemented several programs that continue this tradition of excellence. The Regents' Center for Early Development Education is a leading setting for research and training in the education of young children. The Center is the only educational resource of its kind in Iowa.

Northern Iowa's 19 men's and women's intercollegiate athletics programs compete at the NCAA Division I level with major conference affiliations. The Panthers boast a nationally recognized coaching staff to maintain consistently competitive programs.

The Northern Iowa campus combines the grandeur of early 1900s architecture with striking, modern building designs that have characterized an impressive growth period over the past dozen years. The attractive, park-like campus contains more than 40 major buildings on 861 acres, yet is compact enough to cross in a 10-minute walk.

UNI is located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 35,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/ Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for north-east Iowa.
